

Step by Step to your goal: Interlibrary Loan of Books

Please log in to the catalog first. Students and OTH staff use their 4-digit OTH-ID and the corresponding password to log in. External users log in using their library number (found on the back of their library card).

Next, it's best to search for the book or topic you want using the advanced search under "Title" and select "Gesamtbestand OTH Amberg-Weiden":

You will now be taken to the search results. Here you'll find local results, books located in Amberg or Weiden.

If you get few or no results there, we recommend selecting "Bayern (Fernleihe)" instead of the OTH collection. Here you'll find all the collections of academic libraries throughout Bavaria. Because the number of results may be very large, this search may take a moment.

Here, you must make sure to order a printed book, not an e-book (unfortunately, ordering an e-book is not legally permitted. An e-book interlibrary loan request will automatically be changed to the print version or, if the print version is not available, canceled with a rejection notice). The easiest way to tell the difference is by the "book" icon below the respective title:

➤ Proceedings: 15. - 17. Oktober 2007 in Dresden ; gemeinsame Veranstaltung von: Bundesministerium für Bildung und Forschung (BMBF), VDE Verband der Elektrotechnik Elektronik Informationstechnik ; organisiert von: VDE/VDI-Gesellschaft Mikroelektronik, Mikro- und Feinwerktechnik (GMM) ; VDI/VDE Innovation + Technik GmbH (VDI/VDE-IT).

Now click on the appropriate title to go to the individual result view.

You're almost there. On this screen, click “Per Fernleihe bestellen”:

You will then be redirected to a form where you can specify your home library (the library where you'd like to pick up the book), whether you'll no longer need the book after a specific date (e.g., the submission date of your paper), or whether you want this exact edition (it's recommended to select “diese Auflage oder neuere” so that you can use up-to-date scholarly sources).

Finally, all you have to do is submit the interlibrary loan request by clicking “Fernleihbestellung abschicken”.

All done! We'll send you an email as soon as you can pick up the books from us.

Since these items may come from anywhere in Bavaria and Germany, you should expect a delivery time of about 10 days.

Please note: Books ordered through interlibrary loan cannot be renewed!

Good luck with your research and ordering! ☺
